

SCHOOL LIBRARY SYMPOSIUM 2011

21ST CENTURY LIBRARIANS: SHARING, LEARNING, GROWING

8:00 -- 8:45: Registration

8:45 -- 9:30: Welcome & Keynote Address

9:30 -- 10:00: Coffee/Tea Break

10:00 -- 10:55: Session 1: Workshops

11:00 -- 11:55: Session 2: Workshops

12:00 -- 1:30 Lunch

1:30 -- 2:25: Session 3: Workshops

2.30-3.25: Session 4: Workshops

3.30-4.00 Coffee/Tea Break

4:00-5:00 pm: Closing (Plenary session)

5:00-6:15 pm: Social get together

6:30 -- 8:00 Conference Dinner

Programme Outline

Key Note Presentation - Theatre

Reading aloud to children - is it still the key to literacy in the 21st century?

KATE SHEPHERD, AUSTRAL ED, AUSTRALIA

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
Session 1	IB Extended Essay and TOK Essay: How to inspire students and make sure research is key Marion van Engelen Dulwich College, Shanghai	So you think you are going to run a Library? Crash course in Librarianship Fiona Collins WISS, Shanghai	Digital Storytelling: Using/making book trailers to bring life back to book reporting! Barbara Boyer SAS, Shanghai	Research that works! Karen Lee Gockley, Dulwich College, Beijing
Session 2	CIS Accreditation and Libraries: make that Section F Resources work for you and your Library Marion van Engelen, Dulwich College, Shanghai	Cataloging - where to begin? Fiona Collins, WISS CiCi Zhuang, WISS Siau Ting Tai, SRIS Karine Lespinasse Sabourault, Alliance Francais	How do we sell our books when students are on the computer? Barbara Boyer, SAS, Shanghai	Catch The Wave: Ideas For Getting Students and Parents On Board With Innovative Library Programs! Rosemary Kinyanjui SAS, Shanghai
Session 3	Books Illustrating Perspective or Different Points of View Kate Shepherd, Austral Ed, Australia	Readers are not only numbers! Marion PAN 潘玥玲 & Camille CHEN 陈祎 Alliance Francais, Shanghai Mandarin Presentation	JING-A-Ling in the Library Kate Benson, Rainbow Bridge, Shanghai	Creating Library Promotional Materials Beatrice Wu & Doreen Chen, SAS, Shanghai
Session 4	Library Pages Student helpers in the Library Ruby Xu, SAS	Role of the Teacher-Librarian in Inquiry Eileen Hurley, Suzhou Singapore International School, Suzhou	IMovie workshop Paul Wong, SCIS Hangzhou Tim Boyer, SAS, Shanghai

Closing Address - Theatre

Kamishibai : the art of kyokan, "the sharing of feelings"

Shigeko Kusakabe, Doshinsha Publishing, Japan, Eiko Matsui, International Kamishibai Association of Japan (IKAJA) and Karine Lespinasse Sabourault, Alliance Francais, Shanghai, China

Most workshops are aimed at all interested librarians; however there are one or two targeting specific groups as indicated by the colour coding on the programme outline:

All interested librarians

Secondary IB librarians

Mandarin speakers

Those considering CIS accreditation

Workshop Abstracts

Keynote Presentation 8:45 am – 9:30am

Reading aloud to children – is it still the key to literacy in the 21st century?

Reading aloud has been the key to early literacy for so many children. It is the way to make a child think that there is something magical in books and to make children want to read them for themselves so that they can dip into this magical world whenever they like. However in this world of ebooks and the internet, does reading aloud become increasingly difficult in schools? This is a discussion about literacy, about the importance of reading aloud both to very young and to older children. There will be discussion of books that provide delight when read aloud and also of books that children will love to read for themselves. The emphasis will be on books from a wide range of countries with a range of themes from early years to grade 8.

Kate Shepherd, Manager/Director of Austral Ed, Adelaide, Australia

Primary to Middle Years Librarians

Session 1 10:00am – 10:55am

IB Extended Essay and TOK Essay: How to inspire students and make sure research is key

The IB Diploma Programme expects students to be involved in research for most of their subjects and of course for their Extended essay and TOK essay. The stage at which the IB Librarian becomes involved in the EE and TOK E, should be as early as possible. Workshop offers advice and practical helpful tools, as well as encourages discussion on best practice.

Marion van Engelen, Head of Libraries, Dulwich College, Shanghai, China

For secondary IB Librarians

So you think you are going to run a Library? Crash course in Librarianship

Running a library can be an exhausting job if you are not sure where to start. We'll look at the basic day-to-day things that need to happen, the fun things that make the job worthwhile and how you can make the most of running your Library.

Fiona Collins, Librarian, Western International School of Shanghai, Shanghai, China'

For all interested Librarians

Digital Storytelling: Using/making book trailers to bring life back to book reporting!

We all love to preview movie trailers before the opening night. Harness the power of digital tools into making exciting book trailers with your students. Many programs can be used from Powerpoint, keynote, garageband, imovie. Bring your laptops and have a go!

Barbara Boyer, Elementary Librarian, Shanghai American School, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians and Assistants

Research that works!

An easy, foolproof way for upper elementary to high school students to research from the essential question to the finished product with tips for collaborating with teachers.

Karen Lee Gockley, Junior School Librarian, Dulwich College Beijing, China

For all interested Librarians

Session 2 11:00 am – 11:55am

CIS Accreditation and Libraries: make that Section F Resources work for you and your Library

Accreditation is a tool that Librarians can use to increase attention to the needs of their department. We'll go through Section F step by step and see how your comments can help the Visiting Team to write useful recommendations. Workshop leader has been through two CIS accreditations as Head of Libraries and has been part of a CIS accreditation team.

Marion van Engelen, Head of Libraries, Dulwich College, Shanghai, China

For anyone considering accreditation

Cataloging - where to begin?

This tutorial style workshop will cover the basics of cataloging with a computerised Library system - What are the essential items to include? What is the Dewey Decimal System? What about subject headings and Marc records? Bring your computers and access to your Library systems and we'll help to address your cataloging questions in English, Chinese & French.

Fiona Collins, Librarian, Western International School of Shanghai, Shanghai, China

CiCi Zhuang, Librarian, Western International School of Shanghai, Shanghai, China

Siau Ting Tai, Secondary Librarian, Shanghai Rego International School, Shanghai, China

Karine Lespinasse Sabourault, Alliance Francais, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians & Assistants

How do we sell our books when students are on the computer?

How do we sell our books when students are on the computer... We meet them where they are... We will explore several online programs (Shelfari, Library Thing, DestinyQuest, GoodReads) to explore the possibilities with your students. Hear live testimonies from 5th graders at SAS who are using it!

Barbara Boyer, Elementary Librarian, Shanghai American School, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians

Catch The Wave: Ideas For Getting Students and Parents On Board With Innovative Library Programs!

Feel like you have some good ideas for getting students involved in some fun library programs? Have you had some success getting parents to be helpful (rather than decorative) in your library? I have some ideas and would love to hear yours!

Rosemary Kinyanjui, ES Librarian, Shanghai American School, Puxi Campus, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians

Session 3 1:30 pm – 2:25pm

Books Illustrating Perspective or Different Points of View

In order to learn, share and grow, it is important to understand the different points of view of individuals and of cultures. The presentation will discuss a range of books which are helpful when discussing the concept of Perspective as outlined in the Primary Years Programme of the International Baccalaureate, in relation to different points of view. This would be useful for any school curriculum as looking at a variety of points of view can help develop international awareness. The books discussed will be picture books and fiction titles from Elementary to Grade 7.

Kate Shepherd, Manager/Director of Austral Ed, Adelaide, Australia

Primary to Middle Years Librarians

Readers are not only numbers !

After a general presentation of the work of a librarian, we will focus on two aspects (i) what is a reader and how to give the best service to them while applying the library regulations (ii) how to set up activities (reading sessions, games for adults, conferences...) through our experience at Alliance Francaise Shanghai

读者不是符号！我们将在两方面和大家讨论图书馆管理员的工作：第一 如果让读者遵守图书馆的规定同时给读者提供最好的服务 第二 上海法语培训中心图书馆组织的活动介绍（阅读会，游戏，讲座等等

Marion PAN 潘玥玲 and Camille CHEN, Alliance Francais, Shanghai, China

A presentation in Mandarin for all interested Chinese speaking Librarians

JING-A-Ling in the Library

This workshop will introduce participants to a fantastic resource--JING. Participants will learn to use JING to create tutorials and other screen-capture videos that can be used in the library and beyond! Note: JING is free but must be downloaded. Those participants bringing laptops can download JING ahead of time at Tech Smith Jing.

Kate Benson, Tech Ninja, Rainbow Bridge International School, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians and Assistants

Creating Library Promotional Materials

Beatrice and Doreen will be offering a workshop geared towards creating posters, pamphlets and book marks using Publisher and Pages. They will show examples of their work and help others create promotional materials for their libraries.

Beatrice Wu and Doreen Chou, Library Assistants, Shanghai American School, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians

Session 4 2:30 pm - 3:25pm

Library Pages, Working with Student Helpers in the Library

This session will examine how students can be useful helpers in the library. We will discuss how to manage them, what to do with them, and the "do's and don'ts" of student help. Leave this session with a list of things they can do which will be created by the group after the initial presentation. This is a give and take session where we will discuss the benefits and challenges of student helpers.

Ruby Xu, Library Assistant, Shanghai American School, Shanghai China

For all interested Library Assistants and Librarians

Role of the Teacher-Librarian in Inquiry

This session will be a round table discussion of the role of the TL in the teaching of skills for encouraging inquiry and questioning in the classroom. Points we may touch on will include the importance of the following: having a flexible library schedule, attending planning meetings, and cultivating a supportive perception of your role within the school. I will speak about my experience as an Elementary TL at Suzhou Singapore International School, and then open the discussion to other participants to share their ideas and experiences. I think of myself more as an inquiry teacher rather than an information provider.

Eileen Hurley, Teacher Librarian, Suzhou Singapore International School, Suzhou, China

For all interested Librarians

IMovie workshop

Join us for a beginners workshop on using Imovie in the library. Plan to make a short movie that is library related. Bring some photos of your library for a welcome movie. This session will require the participants to be using a mac book.

Paul Wong, Librarian, Shanghai Community International School, Hongzhou and Tim Boyer, Shanghai American School, Shanghai, China

For all interested Librarians

Closing Address 4:00pm - 5:00pm

Kamishibai : the art of kyokan, "the sharing of feelings

The kamishibai uses a wooden frame in which the story-teller slide in and out drawings. This mini-theater was invented in Japan in the 20th century. We will introduce its history and give a demonstration how to operate it.

Shigeko Kusakabe, Doshinsha Publishing, Japan, Eiko Matsui, International Kamishibai Association of Japan (IKAJA) and Karine Lespinasse Sabourault, Alliance Francais, Shanghai, China
For all interested Librarians

SHANGHAI LIBRARIANS NETWORK

